Anti-Polio Shots Urged; County Has Free Clinics

Although the incidence of polio appears to be down this year, County Health Officer Henrik Blum told the Sun today that children and pregnant women should obtain polio vaccinations as soon as possible.

The county, as during last year, is providing free immunization clinic service also, for those who cannot avail themselves of private services.

THE SHOTS MAY be given any time in the summer, and there are new assurances from health authorities that there is no more risk from them, than from any other standard inoculations given children in their early years.

Referring to the incidence of polio this year, Blum said that "If you start low, you are more likely to finish low, and that seems to be the case in Contra Costa County."

SINCE JANUARY there have been only 10 cases of polio in the county, including one man, 36 years old, he declared.

None of the victims had been vaccinated with the now-famous Salk vaccine, though the County Health Department has administered 10,700 shots since January.

Heartening factor is that last year at this time, there were 24 cases of polio, more than twice as many as this year, so far.

Significant, hopes Blum, is that Contra Costa County had only 56 cases of polio in 1955.

This again, is only half the average number of cases for the previous five years — 128 cases.

BUT CERTAIN is the fact that many men, women and children will feel for the first time this summer the aralyzing effects of polio. For this reason, Blum told The Sun:

"Children should be vaccinated against polio as soon as possible so they may have protection for the late summer and fall.

"Comparison of groups of children who received the vaccine with groups of the same age who did not have vaccine has shown that even one injection prevents half the cases of paralytic polio, while two injections prevent over three-fourths of these cases."

Blum added, "The polio vaccine is now as safe as any vaccine now in use, for smallpox, tetanus, whooping cough or any of the others adminstered every year to countless children and servicement on induction.

"IN FACT, the incidence of slight skin reaction is even less for the polio vaccine."

The first two injections of vaccine are usually given about a month apart, though this interval can be much longer without reducing the immunity obtained, Blum added.

The third injection is not given until 7 to 12 months after the second. Even though the entire series cannot be completed this year, one or two injections can give enough protection to prevent a significant number af cases of paralysis, he said.

DOCTORS AND the Health Department officials have received enough vaccine for all children under 15 years of age and for pregnant women, and later on, it is expected that 15 to 19 year-olds will be added to the priority group.

"Parents should consult their family physician and follow his advice about having their children immunized, so that the needs of each individual child may be considered, said Blum.

"FOR THOSE parents and pregnant women who may find this difficult, polio vaccine is given in Health Department Clinics by appointment.

An appointment may be obtained by writing to the County Health Department, P.O. Box 871, Martinez, including name and address of the parent, name and birth date of each child, and date of any previous anti-polio injection.

Of the 10 cases this year, three have been in Concord, one in Lafayette, one in Orinda, three in Pittsburg, and one each in San Pablo, Richmond and El Cerrito. Victims were 2½ to 36 years old.

OF THESE, THREE were in January, two in February, one in March, two in April and two in May. None so far in June.

There were other cases which at first looked like polio but turned out to be other afflictions with like symptoms.

Recent reports from Chicago, have also confirmed that it is safe to give polio shots anytime in the summer.

U.S. Navy doctors last fall injected 26,000 children and married adults in the service in Honolulu with vaccine during the height of an epidemic, with "good effect," reports said.

"THE SECRET OF THE WORN-OUT SHOES" will be presented at 2 p.m. today and 10:30 a.m. 2 p.m. tomorrow at the Orinda School auditorium by the Pine Grove "Thespians." Shown in final rehearsal of the three-act fantasy are five members of the troupe — left to right, Jim Gibbs, Suzy Eubank, Sue Dunshee, Rowie Laugman and Marian Oakley. Tickets will be available at the door. The "Thespians" and their production are part of the new Drama Section of the Orinda Art Center. —Martin White photo

Board OK's Incorporation

Decision Pending on Suit Against Rezoning for PIE

Monday's hearing of the Orinda Association's arguements for an injunction to prevent the Pacific Intermountain Express Company from erecting a $750,000 office building in the Pine Grove area concluded with Superior Judge Allen Norris of Alameda County mission.

The association, represented by Attorney Nathan Engelberg, advanced the arguement that the granted rezoning of the Pine Grove area was capricious and that the PIE building would be an intrusion of residential rights.

Unlike the other business in the area, the association representative declared, PIE would not provide services immediately necessary to the local residents.

In the two and a half hour hearing, Judge Norris was also confronted with views from Deputy District Attorney Mathew S. Walker, representative of the Board of Supervisors, Planning Commission and other county official named defendants in the suit, and Bestor Robinson, attorney for PIE.

Another PIE spokesman was C. E. Johnson, the firm's vice president.

Walker's arguements were that the Orindans were seeking to use the court as a legislative body like the supervisors and the planning commisson, who had given the green light to rezoning recently.

The deputy D. A. amplified his point to declare that the Orinda Association was wrongly seeking redress of political rights before a non-political body, which could only act if constitutional rights were abused by the county bodies.

Engelberg had reiterated many of the arguements voiced before the supervisors and the planning commission during hearings on the rezoning issue. He also attacked the procedure of the legislative bodies during those hearings.

Following the hearing, Walker pointed out that Judge Norris, while not handing down a decision, did not continue the temporary restraining order granted earlier by Contra Costa Judge Huge J. Donovan against the issuance of a building permit to PIE.

Thus, the firm could, if its architectural plans were ready and the decision wer favorable, procede to obtain the permit and start construction of the plush ranch-style structure.

It is reported, however, that the plans are not as yet complete.

Robinson argued that the only issue which the Orindans could contest in the battle over the rezoning of the Pine Grove area is the constitutionality of the procedure which set up the zoning, and that the court could only act if the action is obviously "so objectionable that no reasonable man could upphold it."

The express firm's vice president also intoned that the Orindans had failed to show that any damage to property values would follow the erection of the building.

Jude Norris did not indicate when he would hand down a decision on the injunction. He expected to visit and personally inpect the site before making a ruling.

Doyle Announces VA Hospital to Be Relocated

The Veterans Administration Hospital will not be located at the proposed site adjacent to Miramonte High School Assemblyman Donald Doyle revealed last night.

The announcement came at the State Division of Highways' public hearing on the Shepherd Canyon Freeway route.

Doyle said that he talked to Washington yesterday afternoon (Thursday) and that he had it "on very good authority" that the hospital would not be located at the previously announced site.

He added, however, that it will be located somewhere in the Sixth Congressional District.

The announcement was greeted with cheers by the remaining crowd of about 75. Most of the original group had already left for dinner as the hearing continued after 6 p.m.

Proposed Freeway Routes Argued at State Hearing

Miramonte High School auditorium in southern Orinda was the setting yesterday afternoon for the State Division of Highways' public hearing on routing of the western leg of the Shepherd Canyon Freeway.

Conducted by B. W. Booker, assistant state highway engineer for District IV of the Division of Highways, the gathering highlighted arguments for and against the four possible routes which have been mentioned.

Invited to the meeting were Contra Costa County officials and representatives of various interested improvement groups and other organizations.

THE SESSION was opened by Booker, who explained that it was being held in order to acquaint local officials and interested individuals and organization with information developed in connection with location studies for the proposed Shepherd Canyon Freeway.

He explained that this gathering was not a hearing before the California Highway Commission, which alone has authority to decide on the route.

Report of yesterday's hearing will be forwarded to the state highway engineer in Sacramento, who in turn will report to the commission, Booker said.

BOOKER and members of his staff explained why they have tentatively recommended an approximately straight-line, direct route from St. Mary's College to the vicinity of Miramonte High School.

They pointed out that they consider that direct route through Moraga Valley the cheapest and most direct.

The state engineers used maps in giving their explanations. Among members of Booker's staff scheduled to be present were Assistant District Engineers C. F. Greene and J. P. Sinclair. Greene is in charge of the district office's planning staff.

FOLLOWING the state engineers' presentations, Contra Costa County officials and representatives of various community orgaizations were invited to address the meeting.

In addition to the state-favored direct route, the routes that were discussed included:

1. A route slightly south of the state-favored route. This alternatownsite.
2. The Indian Valley route, still further south.
3. The Redwood Canyon route, south of the Indian Valley route.

ARGUMENTS in favor of the Indian Valley route were scheduled to be presented by Assemblyman Donald Doyle, on behalf of various groups desiring that route. Among these groups was the Lincoln Estates Improvement Association.

The Orinda Association's Civic Affairs Committee was scheduled to be represented by Joe Zablocki, committee vice-chairman. At its meeting Monday night, the Civic Affairs Committee adopted a resolution in favor of the Indian Valley route and opposing the other three.

The Diablo Highway Improvement Federation was scheduled to be represented by its chairman, Elliot J. Hartman. After conferring with representatives of Orinda, Moraga and Canyon groups last week, the federation board agreed to refrain from making recommendation until learning further of the various arguments at yesterday's hearing, although it was agreed that possibility of use of a portion of Ivy Drive as an access road to the freeway should be eliminated.

THE CONTRA COSTA County Women's Planning Council and the Canyon Community Club, both of which oppose the Indian Valley route, were scheduled to be represented at the hearing, as were the Moraga Valley Community Club and the Moraga Valley Homeowners Association.

The latter two, and also the Canyon Community Club, are in favor of the state-favored direct route.

UTAH CONSTRUCTION Company, through whose land the state-favored route would pass, was represented at the hearing, in arguments against the state-favored route and in favor of the Redwood Canyon route.

Keller said that others on hand for Utah Construction Company would probably include himself, Frank Draegar, engineer, and Dana Murdock, attorney with the law firm of Tinning and DeLap.

Supervisors to Render Decision On Redwood Rock Quarry July 10

Influenced by both a recommendation for appoval by the County Planning Commission and protests from Orinda and Moraga residents, the Board of Supervisors has postponed decision on the proposed Redwood Canyon rock quarry until a public hearing July 10, in the wake of Tuesday's hearing.

In an hour and a half session Tuesday morning, the board heard arguments from both sides of the Freeway Industrial Properties', application that it be allowed to operate a rock quarry on a property which extends from Pinehurst Road, near the mouth of the Sacramento - Northern Railroad tunnel, northwestward to the crest of a bare ride which comes ridge which comes down from Round Top, and extends also well over the ridge into Moraga Valley.

To open the hearing, Thomas Heaton, County Planning Director, reiterated the planning commission's Monday recommedation that the application be approved.

The commission had been assigned by the board to visit the site last Friday.

Heaton reported that the comthat a quarry, properly controlled, mission had unanimously voted would not be detrimental to planning for the area.

In a letter to the supervisors Monday, he stated that the commission recommends "approval of the quarry site," and added the commission had not time to draft a list of suggested restrictions on the proposed quarry.

Representing Freeway Industrial Properties, A. J. McCosker, the applicant, told the board that on his 650-acre ranch he possesses a deposit of very high quality, much sought building rock. He said that the material would mostly be trucked into Oakland via the future Shepherd Canyon freeway, but that pending that road's opening, he wants to build some 12 miles of road in his ranch and stockpile rock for future customers.

Although the supervisors' chamber was filled with the residents of the affected area, all of whom had expressed opposition to the site, opponents who spoke at Tuesday's hearing were mostly representing larger or county-county-wide organizations.

One of them, Edward E. Clay, of the Contra Costa Park and Recreation Council, charged that if the quarry goes in the state will tend to ignore present proposals to buy Redwood Canyon as a state park.

Edith Wagstaff, secretary of the Contra Costa Women's Planning Council, presented a letter terming the Redwood Canyon area "a jewel of inestimable value to future generations," and urging against allowing a quarry.

When McCosker stated that he was exploring the possibilities of shipping the rock into Oakland by using the abandoned Sacramento-Northern railway tunnel, C. B. Steidtmann, an engineer and neighbor, rose to declare that he owned half of the tunnel, as well as 55 acres adjacent to the proposed quarry, and the tunnel wouldn't be used for quarry operators.

The verbal battle continued as McCosker termed the written and vocal protests of Orinda, Moraga, Canyon and other area residents "so exaggerated I haven't paid much atteniton to them."

Some of these residents, banded together as the Contra Costa Homeowners' Association, have protested that the quarry would be in plain view of much of the area. They also have pointed out that the Shepherd Canyon Freeway, which the quarry proposes to serve, will not be under construction for one or more years, and have asked the board to take no action permitting the quarry for at least another year.

The homeowners have stated that "Orinda residents selected this peaceful valley for its suburban atmosphere and rural charm, away from the crowded cities and noisy industry. It would be a crime to permit an obnoxious industrial enterprise to destroy forever this beautiful and peaceful countryside," they said. A proponent of the quarry at the hearing was real estate developer George Page, who said his firm plans to build residential developments in the immediate area and plans to buy products from the quarry.

This favorable viewpoint was countered by Mrs. Wilbur Koehler of Lost Valley, who said that residents nearby objected to dust from quarry operations, traffic hazards from trucks and the unsightliness of scarred earth.

Lawrence Viau, spokesman for the East Bay Municipal Utility District, said that his district is "neutral" as to what use is made of the land, so long as the water supply in Upper San Leandro Reservoir is protected.

It has been declared by Edward Munns of Concord, a former government conservation worker, that "slumping topography" of the area would make blasting in the quarry undesirable, and that trucks' vibration and machinery operation could upset the unstable soil in the area. He also said that silt settling dams, demanded by EBMUD, would be too expensive to permit the quarry to operate.

One of the principal objections to the quarry site has been that it would destroy a potential park area.

This argument was bolstered recently by William Drake, Northern California representative of Nature Conservancy, an American society, devoted to conserving wild lands for their scientific as well as recreational value.

Referring to the Canyon, Drake claimed in a letter to the Planning Commission, "it is a living museum of our country's past, and its value will grow immensely with time. We strongly urge you to recommend rejection of a permit for a quarry operation in this area."

Petition Circulation Set for July

At a special meeting Tuesday night, the Orinda Association board unanimously endorsed the proposal of the association's incorporation of Orinda.

Preparation of legal description of boundaries for the proposed city was authorized, and it is expected that these proposed "city limits" will be presented to the County Boundary Commission next Tuesday.

Circulation of petitions will start shortly after the July 4 holiday, Committee Chairman Paul Pollaczek said after the board session.

PRESIDENT Mel Arighi appointed Pollaczek and Frederic Sawyer as co-chairmen of a committee to arrange the mechanics of incorporation steps, and named Robert Boyle to serve on the committee with them.

Pollaczek and Sawyer were empowered to add members to the committee.

During the discussion Tuesday night, Don DeWitt, co-chairman of the recreation study committee, and Sawyer, who has served as board liaison representative to that group, agreed that the objectives of a community services district could best be achieved through incorporation of Orinda as a city.

Last March the recreation study committee, in a report to the association board, recommended formation of a community services district. Co-chairman with DeWitt, on the recreation study unit, is Randy Cook.

IN ADDITION to endorsing the incorporation proposal, the association board decided to ask member organizations for funds needed for expenses in connection with incorporation moves.

Objective of the time-table suggested by the incorporation study committee and approved by the board is to have the city of Orinda in actual operation by next February, so as to be on the tax rolls for the 1957-58 fiscal year.

Petitions must be signed by at least one-quarter of the owners of land, representing at least one-quarter of the total assessed valuation of land in the proposed city.

AFTER THE FILING of such a petition with the Board of Supervisors, the supervisors hold a hearing. After the hearing, at which land can be excluded, the supervisors schedule a date for election.

"The city is incorporated if a majority of the registered voters voting at an election are in favor," the incorporation study committee points out. "Five city councilmen are elected at the time of the incorporation election."

According to the time-table of the association, the election would be held in January.

COPIES OF the 33-page report of the incorporation study committee were distributed by Pollaczek at Monday night's meeting of the association's Civic Affairs Committee.

Transit District Approval Sought

By DICK OSBORN

If city councils within Alameda and Contra Costa Counties endorse the resolution which was sent to them this week by the East Bay Transit District Organization Committee, voters will find themselves deciding upon the formation of a special rapid transit district in the November 6 general elections.

The organization committee, under the chairmanship of Clair MacLeod, San Francisco attorney and member of the Nine Counties Bay Area Rapid Transit Commission, is attempting to form the special transit district to alleviate the problems of Alameda and Contra Costa Counties.

"The idea behind the formation of the district," said MacLeod, "is that the same service will be provided for Alameda and Contra Costa Counties as has been provided by Key System in Alameda County.

"AS FAR AS CONTRA Costa County is concerned, the district would attempt to provide local bus service throughout the Moraga - Orinda - Lafayette - Walnut Creek - Pleasant Hill - Concord-Martinez areas.

"We can't wait nine years for the completion of construction of the first part of the big Nine Counties project, and even if we could, it would be necessary to have feeder systems to bring commuters and users within reach of the main terminals.

In answer to queries as to whether or not the district was formed with the express purpose of "buying out" Key System, Oakland Deputy City Attorney Robert Nisbet explained that "Key System and Greyhound local service are both becoming less desirable every day.

"Personally, any director I would support would have to commit himself not to buy anything that Key has to sell, unless at a ridiculously low bankrupt price."

SEE EDITORIAL SECOND SECTION

The mechanics of formation of a special two-county district to set up a transportation system proceed as follows:

NINE OR MORE of the city councils in the proposed district (see map on page 3) must endorse the resolution calling for the formation of the special district. An election will then be called by the Alameda County Board of Supervisors (because it is the larger county) and a simple majority of the popular vote November 6 would be sufficient to form the district.

Five directors would be elected by wards, each ward containing roughly the same population, and two directors at large would be elected.

A tax rate of "a few mils" would be set to pay for engineering expenses, and when a plan was worked out by the board, a general bond issue requiring a two-thirds majority vote for passage would be called.

If this bond issue were successful, the district would be in business and operating. The board has the power to set the tax rate necessary for maintenance and upkeep and the power to call bond issues.

MacLeod also explained that any city or "unincorporated" area will have the power to vote exclusion from the district if the majority of the people wish it, "although I can't understand why they should," he added.

If this bond issue were successful, the district would be in business and operating. The board has the power to set the tax rate necessary for maintenance and upkeep and the power to call bond issues.

"THE PEOPLE are not creating a Frankenstein that they can't control," said Nisbet. They always have control by the vote . . . over their directors and the policies of the board and through ratification of bond issues.

"Economically, we feel that for a while the operation would have to be subsidized through tax proceeds, but eventually it will come pretty close to taking care of its own operating and maintenance costs."

MacLeod stated that there would have to be a tax to amortize the original 30 or 40 year bond issue, but that estimates are that operating expenses could come about 50 per cent from the earnings, while the rest would have to be derived from tax support.

Proponents also explained that there is no conflict between the proposed East Bay district and the Nine Counties district, because anything the East Bay district provides will eventually be used as "feeder lines" for the larger transit system.

MAYOR E. C. Counter of Walnut Creek said that no recommendations are yet forthcoming from the city, but that the Contra Costa Mayor's Conference will discuss the problem of rapid transit at its meeting June 29 in El Cerrito.

Regarding the eventual request for a bond issue, if the district is formed, "it would have to be specific in the proposed allocation of funds," said MacLeod.

That is, he explained, voters would have to know whether the money was going toward the purchase of Key System, for new buses, or for what specific purpose.

When asked if the majority of the benefit would not accrue to Alameda County, in providing relief from the present transit system, while Contra Costa County would be paying a proportionate part of the bill, Nisbet answered:

"It would be my thought that some part of the plan would have to provide service for Contra Costa County. It would have to take the place of and improve the local service now offered by Greyhound.

"After all, you have many isolated communities and the growth is going to be terrific. All the communities there will need some form of rapid, economical transportation."

Nisbet also indicated that if the plan is approved and passed in the general election in November, that probably the board would be able to come up with a detailed plan in "the latter part of next year."

Birdy's Gonna Pluck Feathers

A trace of rain on Wednesday wasn't enough to change the season's total of 44.94 inches of rain in Orinda this week.

Balmy skies, however, were a balm for the Weatherbird, who noted that a high of 88 on Sunday is getting perilously close to the ninetys, when excess feathers must be plucked for the hot spells.

A low of 41 on Wednesday, accompanied the dampness, but was not up to last week's coolness, when 39 was registered on two days.

June 15	71	52
June 16	79	44

Rotary Stages Children's Day

The seventh annual children's day was observed at noon Wednesday at the Willow Inn by the Orinda Rotary Club.

Members brought their children to be entertained by Ronnie Brown, teen age magician, and Jack Schneider, who gave lessons on "How to Play the Harmonica," using all sizes and shapes of the instrument.

Next week will be the last meeting prescided over by Rotary President Maynard Buehler. New officers of the service organizations will take office July 1.

SLEEPY HOLLOW POOL, at the end of Van Tassel Lane, Orinda, opened Sunday, after many months of hard work by volunteers of the Sleepy Hollow Recreational Association. Sleepy Hollow Pool Opens For Members Despite Rains

The climax of some 15 months of effort on the part of The Sleepy Hollow Recreational Association came last Sunday when about 300 members tried out their new pool, located at the end of Van Tassel Lane.

Although work remains to be done on the pool, opening day proved warm and the swimmers thought the "water was fine."

The pool announces, however, that the balance of the work can be completed without interrupting swimming more than four or five days this summer.

PLANS FOR the pool were first presented to the people of Sleepy Hollow in March, 1955. By May of that year the Recreational Association had been formed. In June the title to the present property was obtained, and in August construction got under way.

By December the pool was almost complete. Then came the big rains.

THIS SPRING the entire project looked discouraging. The pool was full of mud and several hundred yards of dirt from the play areas and roads had washed away.

It was nearly the first of May before the ground dried up enough to begin repairs.

Presently, the site has been regraded, broken pipe lines and fences have been repaired and a new dressing house is virtually complete.

Jobs remaining include a lot of paving and a drainage system to prevent a repetition of last year's unhappy occurrence. A wading pool is under way.

ACCORDING TO pool authorities, lawn work and the development of a picnic area will continue for some time.

All of the planning and much of the labor that have made the Sleepy Hollow Pool a reality were donated by members and friends of the pool.

Orinda Summer Recreation Program Now On for Kids

Summer fun has arrived, and indications are that Orinda kids are in for a great time at the four playgrounds of the Orinda School District.

Under the supervision of six experienced recreation directors, youngsters can be found participating in activities planned for their enjoyment.

The Orinda Summer Recreation program will run for a period of six weeks, five days a week Mondays through Fridays, ending July 27. The program opened Monday.

Frank E. Isola, director of physical education and recreation, states:

"Summer is the time for activity and at our playgrounds every minute will be one of fun for Orinda youngsters. Throughout the summer, children will go on excursions, join in on watermelon feeds, be shown movies and participate in a host of other events planned for their entertainment."

Children of school age throughout the district can attend whichever playground is most convenient for them.

THREE OUTSTANDING activities of interest not only to teenagers but to parents as well are scheduled for their leisure time.

Throughout the summer program, parents can join together on Tuesday evenings at the Pine Grove School from 7:30 to 9 for good old fashioned "Outdoor Square and Round Dances" called by Jack Clark of Sleepy Hollow School.

On Friday, July 6, from 8 to 11 p.m. a dance will be held for children in the intermediate age level (seventh, eighth grades and the freshman class at Miramonte as of September, 1956).

On Friday, July 20, from 8 to 11 p.m., a dance will be held for teen-agers in the sophomore through senior classes in high school.

Both of the above dances will be held at Pine Grove School.

IN ADDITION, a crafts program under the direction of Mrs. Beverly Walsh will be conducted at three playgrounds, according to the following schedule:

Sleepy Hollow School, 10 a.m. to noon, Mondays and Tuesdays.

Glorietta School, 1 to 3 p.m., Mondays and Tuesdays.

Del Rey School, 10 a.m. to noon, Thursdays and Fridays.

CLOSING OUT the summer, a gala carnival under the leadership of Bill Hester from Pine Grove School will be held. More information on this event will be forthcoming.

Isola states, "Parents and children are urged to attend the playground nearest their home and take part in the program designed to help make their summer a pleasurable and happy one."

PLAYGROUNDS, hours (Mondays through Fridays) and directors are:

Orinda School, 11 a.m.-4 p.m., Ted Boyce, Jack Clark; Sleepy Hollow School, 10 a.m. - 3 p.m., Don Wacks; Glorietta School, 10 a.m.-3 p.m., Bill Hester; Del Rey School, 10 a.m.-3 p.m., Keith Burnham.

Craft Instruction: Mrs. Beverly Walsh.

EACH THURSDAY from 1 p.m. to 3 p.m. is Movie Day at the Pine Grove School, with a full-length film being shown. Next Thursday's movie will be Lum and Abner in "So This Is Washington."

Additional information on the summer program can be secured by calling Ted Boyce, CL 4-2021, Orinda School.

Orindan is Hit by Car

Robert Satterthwaite, 38, of 28 Las Vegas Road, Orinda, received a broken right leg Wednesday, when he was struck by a car while standing near his stalled auto east of the Broadway Tunnel.

It was about 1:50 a.m. and Satterthwaite was driving home from work in Berkeley, followed by his wife in another car. She had been summoned when Satterthwaite had discovered that his own car was not operating properly.

The car, of ancient origin, developed engine trouble en route home. Satterthwaite told Highway Patrol officers that his wife drove ahead and parked off the road, so that he could get tools from her car.

He said that at that moment another car driven by Robert Fambry, 36, of Concord came out of the dark, striking the lead car.

The wife still inside the car, was unhurt, but the husband suffered a broken leg and was taken to the Herrick Memorial Hospital in Berkeley.

Fambry was booked at the county jail on charges of driving under the influence of liquor.

Early Orinda Scout Leader Dies in Oakland

Long-time Orinda resident and Boy Scout leader Sidney K. Rosenthal died on June 14 in Oakland at 62, the result of an extended illness.

Mr. Rosenthal had lived in the Bay Area since 1906, when his family moved to Berekley. He attended the University of California there, and moved to Orinda in the early 1920's, where he lived to the time of his death.

Here he became interested in the Boy Scout movement and the community in general ,and was one of the pioneers in developing both. His work in Scouting occupied most of his free time until his health no longer permitted him to continue.

Mr. Rosenthal was responsible for the start of Orinda Troop 1, and his son Charles was the troop's first Eagle Scout.

In 1919 he opened an X-ray laboratory in Berkeley, which is currently being operated by his wife and college sweetheart, Mrs. Myrtle L. Rosenthal.

During the First World War Mr. Rosenthal served in the National Guard, and was sent to the Mexican border during the border disputes of 1916. In 1918 he enlisted in the Navy and served there until 1919.

He is survived by his wife, sons Charles, of Oakland, and Kenneth of Berkeley, and six grandchildren.

High School in Tice Valley Area Has Green Light

Despite a request by the Stanley Dollar family through their attorney that the County Planning Commission delay action for several weeks, the official body on Tuesday recommended for approval plans for building a new high school on 44 acres in Tice Valley.

The owners had originally asked that the decision be held until Frank Draeger of Oakland completes his survey of future use of the 2000-acre Dollar Ranch, which contains the proposed high school site.

Acalanes High School District Superintendent Neil Parsons said recently that it is hoped to have the high school in operation in Tice Valley within two years.

Th location is near Las Lomas High School, a quarter mile from Tice Valley Boulevard.

Tot in Hospital After Hit by Car

A 3-year-old boy was critically injured last week when he ran into the side of a panel truck on Moraga Highway near Northwood Drive.

The boy, David N. Bowers, 60 Oak Drive, was taken to Children's Hospital of the East Bay, Oakland, with a fractured right arm and pelvis.

Highway Patrol spokesman said the child ran from between two diagonally parked cars into the front section of a truck driven by Frank E. Stroud of Concord.

Hospital authorities have described the boy's condition as "mproved and satisfactory."

Carroll Friends and Kin Meet at Reunion

Friends and relatives from near and far gathered at the home of the Leon Carroll's, 67 Lost Valley Drive for a family reunion and Bar-B-Q.

Guests, some of whom had not met for 35 years, included Mr. and Mrs. Gordon O'Toole of Oakland, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Dalbey of Watsonville, Mrs. Lella Warne of Sacramento, Mr. John Wolfskill of Suisun, Mr. and Mrs. Blake Cooper of El Cerrito, Mr. and Mrs. Robert R. Belcher of Albany, Mrs. John Wolfskill, Miss Margaret Wolfskill, Mr. Chester W. Meeting Cancelled

The special meeting of the Orinda School District Board of Trustees, scheduled for last Wednesday, has been cancelled.

The next regular meeting of the board will be held Monday, July 2.

C of C Forms Incorporation Study Committee

The Orinda Chamber of Commerce has appointed a committee to look further into the Orinda Association's proposal for incorporation.

At the regular chamber meeting Tuesday noon at the Willows Inn, the group named Ramsay Underwood to head a study committee on the issue. Included in the committee are Clarence Betz, Stanley Allen and Ernest Poll, who will report their findings soon to the membership.

APPOINTMENT OF the committee was motivated by Underwood's comments at the meeting on the Orinda Association's report on incorporation. He complimented writers of the report, but suggested that a professional firm be hired to confirm the report's findings on costs and incomes.

It is difficult, he stated, for a volunteer committee to calculate these items accurately.

Betz followed Underwood's remarks with disclosure that he had spoken to professionals in the field and others well-acquainted with the problems of incorporation, including the city manager of Los Altos, but that his findings were incomplete.

WITH THE WORDS that he hoped the chamber would "express ourselves with less emotionalism than on past issues," Allen then proposed the establishment of the study committee.

Ken Courtright introduced Mrs. Alvin A. Burton, a member of the County Park and Recreation Council, who showed the film, "It's Up to You," a movie depicting the need for parks in Contra Costa County.

Speaking to the chamber members, Mrs. Burton said that her council has asked the board of supervisors for $150,000 for the financing of park sites. The board's decision is still pending, she explained, but "meanwhile, we are working and studying for a county park system."

SHE ADDED, "We know of industries who say they don't want to move into this county because of the lack of recreational facilities."

Board members left yesterday for an over-night trip to Pardee Dam as guests of the East Bay Municipal Utility District.

The next board meeting will be next Tuesday at Allen's office in the Sprouse-Reitz store in Orinda.

Last Tuesday's meeting was presided over by President Merle Brown.

Smith, Sheaff Speak to Pine Grove Grads

Ritchie Smith, member of the Board of Trustees, Orinda School District, told 186 graduates of the Pine Grove School, and more than a thousand spectators last Friday night that, "the first half of your 16 years of education are very important, but it is the last half that is the real test."

Scene was the Miramonte High School, where ceremonies began with the traditional processional, salute to the flag and invocation by the Rev. Chauncey E. Blossom.

Greetings were voiced by Joseph Sheaff, Orinda School District superintedent, who said that the central theme was to develop the talents of all eighth graders and not just a few individuals.

The band, directed by Gerald Meeder, played "American Patrol", and "The Song of America", sung by the class, was enthusiastically applauded.

The graduating class was presented to the audience by Dr. Philip Lambert, Pine Grove principal, after which Ritchie Smith presented diplomas to graduates.

Flowers, decorations and potted palms were donated for the ceremonies by the Orchard Nursery.

Library Fund Gets $40,000 In Pledges

Pledges totaling over the $40,000 mark have been made by the residents of Orinda in the initial phase of the Orinda Library Building Fund, it was announced yesterday from the drive headquarters at 118 Orinda Highway.

Mrs. Donald Krotz, chairman of the field group responsible for the house-to-house canvass which started June 8 said: "Our first report meeting of the field group shows that Orinda residents are behind this community project 100 per cent. Approximately 65 per cent of the field group goal has been reached, with many more residents yet to be heard from.

"IT IS WONDERFUL to see a community project take shape as this one has," Mrs. Krotz continued. "In working alone we can do very little, but if we work as a group we can accomplish great things, and this project is one of the greatest of them."

General Chairman Perc S. Brown, now in the East on business, when informed of the field group's report said: "I am inspired by this report. It convinces me that Orinda families want a library to adequately service their growing needs."

THE BUILDING FUND headquarters was abuzz with activity all day Wednesday, with Mrs. Krotz and Melvin S. Jacobus, campaign treasurer, supervising a group of volunteers and auditors tabulating the returns as brought in by the team captains.

Mr. William M. Fleager, administration chairman, and Mrs. Clinton Scarich, headquarters assistant, said: "The midnight oil has been burning far into the nights, but it's worth it, with the fine results that the team captains have accomplished."

Bruce Howard, chairman of the special gifts group, and Co-Chairmen Walter E. Friberg and Robert E. Gemetti Jr., of the business district group announced that report meetings for their groups are scheduled within the near future.

Orinda Pharmacy to Move To Enlarged New Building

The Orinda Pharmacy will be housed in a new building about four times the size of its present facility within the next half year, owner Frank Delos has announced.

Now completing his 15th year as owner of the pharmacy, presently located at 1 Moraga Highway, Delos stated that construction of the vast new store will get under way in July at the corner of Moraga Highway and Brookwood Road.

Delos added that he expects the 7500 square foot structure to be ready for occupancy by the first of next year.

In describing plans for the new pharmacy, Delos claimed that it would house storage and loading facilities, in addition to the store and its offices. Also planned are truck-loading ramps and several new store departments.

All of this is planned, said Delos, in architecture similar to that of the surrounding buildings. It will be a one-story structure.

"Our purpose," he declared, "is to keep up with the growth of Orinda and to be better able to serve you."

In addition to the normal entrances on Moraga Highway and Brookwood Road, the pharmacy will have an extra entrance on Moraga Highway.

Street Flooded By Water Main

Three Orinda homes found themselves without water last Friday when an East Bay Municipal Utility District 12-inch water main broke in the morning at Glorietta Boulevard and Moraga Highway.

The water, being pumped from the district's reservoir, gushed from the pipe and gouged a hole 10 feet deep, 6 feet wide and 25 feet long.

The water flooded Glorietta Boulevard and washed silt in to the front yard of Dr. E. E. Evans, 111 Glorietta Boulevard.

It took workmen the bulk of the day to repair the break, apparently caused by the settling of soil under the pipe.

5th Lane to Tunnel OK'd, Hartman Tells Federation

At the directors June meeting of the Diablo Highway Improvement Federation held at his home in Lafayette June 14, Chairman Elliot Hartman announced he had been informed by the State Division of Highways that a fifth lane for Mt. Diablo Boulevard from Orinda to the Broadway Tunnel had been approved by the State Highway Commission in Sacramento.

Bids are to be called for within 60 days for construction and completion of the project by the end of the year, Hartman said. He added that engineers have decided upon a full lane all the way to the Tunnel with the entrance to the Tunnel to be modified to accommodate the new lane.

Possibility of an additional lane had been the subject of discussion between the federation and Assistant Dristrict Highway Engineer Alfred Simmons, who agreed to take the matter under consideration early this year.

Hartman stressed the importance of an additional lane to spread out the merging process of westbound traffic into two lanes and eliminate piling up of additional traffic by slower moving trucks and buses, which could use the ney lane.

Hartman also advised that the state engineers have completed plans outlining an eight-lane freeway from Orinda to Oakland, including a new two-lane bore north of the present tunnels.

A shorter, much straighter highway is planned from the west portals to Broadway by filling in the creek bed and eliminating curves.

Urgent need for back road connections in this part of Contra Costa County was outlined to Supervisors H. L. Cummings and Ray Taylor, who attended the meeting.

It was stressed that road connections planned several years ago, instead of still being in the planning stage, should already be completed and in service to accommodate the growing volume of traffic occasioned by the rapidly increasing number of homes being built and occupied each year.

The Supervisors agreed to give proposed county roads the federation deemed most important at this time.

Cummings stated that some county fundys which normally would be earmarked for road building had been budgeted to augment funds for county road bond issue projects which, because of rerouting to accommodate home owners on Pleasant Hill Road and in the interests of civic planning, could not be constructed as originally planned for the original cost.

Building an entirely new road to divert traffic from Pleasant Hill Road instead of widening that road, and building a new road connection from Orinda Village to Mt. Diablo Boulevard to provide for better community planning in that area have increased the costs of construction of two road bond projects by more than $700,000, it was pointed out.

Among visitors present to discuss routing of the Shepherd Canyon Freeway were D. R. Simpson and Mrs. Marion Baker of the Moraga Del Rey Community Association, Mrs. Harold Parker and Elinor Dickenson of the Moraga Valley Community Association, Mrs. H. D. DuBois of the Lincoln Estates Improvement Association, Claude of the Canyon Community Club and George Hearne of the Glenside Improvement Association.

After considerable discussion of the four proposed routes, it was concluded that Chairman Hartman should attend yesterday's hearing by the state engineers at Miramonte High School, representing the federation, but that the federation would take no stand until evaluation of further facts and information to be presented by the state.

It was agreed by all present that possibility of use of a portion of Ivy Drive for an access road to the freeway should be eliminated.

Alternate Sites Rejected for VA Hospital Locale

Two more prospective sites for the controversial Veterans Administration hospital have been rejected.

Investigating replacements for the Orinda site originally chosen for construction of a multi-million dollar hospital, following a deluge of protests from Orinda residents, the VA had most recently been studying an Antioch location and the use of Mare Island Naval Hospital for its homeless hospital facility.

Both have been declared unacceptable in the wake of rejections of proposed alternate sites at Camp Stoneman, Parks Air Force Base and Benicia.

IN A LETTER received last week by Representative John F. Baldwin of Martinez, Robert E. Merriam, assistant to the Director of the Bureau of the Budget, said the Mare Island Hospital, curently operating on a curtailed basis, would not be a suitable replacement for the present VA hospital in downtown Oakland.

"This office," declared Merriam," is in accord with the views of the Veterans Administration that the Mare Island Hospital would not be a suitable replacement and would not be well located in relationship to the geographic area served by the Oakland hospital.

"Our review of the physical facilities at the Mare Island hospital indicates that they are more extensive than would be needed by the Veterans Administration and are made up of a large number of small buildings rather than having the hospital resources concentrated in one hospital building," he continued.

The Antioch site was declared "inaccessible" by H. V. Higley, administrator of veterans' affairs, in a letter to Wesley D. Bush, secretary-manager of the Antioch Chamber of Commerce.

Higley, who had asked that the Antioch area be considered as a hospital site, told Bush that Antioch is too far from Oakland to give the hospital easy access to specialists and consultants.

"One of the important factors in the location of this hospital is its accessibility for private specialists and consultants whose part time services are necessary to insure the best possible treatment for the veteran patients," he said.

"ANTIOCH'S DISTANCE from Oakland would prevent to a great extent our obtaining these necessary services and therefore we cannot consider the area you suggest as a location for this hospital," Higley concluded.

Representative Baldwin had urged Higley to withdraw plans for the Orinda site fololwing a May 21 protest meeting at Miramonte High School, at which over 800 area residents told VA representatives of their objections to the location.

Although a VA condemnation suit for the Moraga Highway-Ivy Drive 20-acre parcel is still on file in U.S. District Court in San Francisco, the administration has been considering many other sites.

LATEST PROPOSAL for location of the vagabond building came last week from the Martinez Chamber of Commerce, which decided to query if the VA will consider building the hospital near the new highway being constructed between Martinez and Pleasant Hill.

Everet Johnson, chamber president, pointed out that since proximity to a medical center seems to be a prime consideration, when the new highway is completed there will be only seven or eight minute difference between possible sites near Martinez to the centers in the East Bay.

$13 Million Expansion Seen For Acalanes School District

A total building program of from $13 to $15 millions for the Acalanes High School District, and construction expenses of about $6 millions by 1960 were forecast by the research directors of Stanford University in a recent final report to school trustees.

The report reiterated earlier predictions of mighty expansion for Moraga, Orinda, Lafayette and Walnut Creek.

Presented last week to high school trustees, it reasserts a previous estimate of an eventual population in the Acalanes District area of 155,600 with 39,000 dwelling units, an elementary school enrollment of 40,800 and a high school enrollment of 9,600 pupils.

The population breakdown by communities forecasts 37,000 for Moraga with 9,000 dwelling units, 9,800 elementary pupils and 2,300 high school students; 27,000 population for Orinda with 7,000 dwellings, 6,800 elementary students, and 1,700 high school students.

Also a prediction of 38,000 population for Lafayette, with 9.700 dwellings, 10,300 elementary pupils and 2,300 high school students; and an estimated population of 53,200 for Walnut Creek with 13,600 dwelllings, 13,900 elementary students and 3,300 high school pupils.

The projections according to the reseach report are based on past growth trends, existing population and "saturation" development of the Acalanes District area according to present zoning restrictions and county planning commission policies.

In considering the growth and needs of the Acalanes High School District, Stanford researchers made the following observations and recommendations:

1. Between 1945 and 1955 the enrollment of the Acalanes High School District increased from 565 to 2175 students, or 284 per cent.

At the point of "saturation" growth for the area the district should have between 8,750 and 10,000 students. The estimated enrollment of 1960 will be approximately 5,200, or a gain of about 140 per cent in the next five years.

Enrollments of 7,500 in 1965 and 8300 in 1970 are likely.

2. The present policy of maintaining school size at about 1250 pupils per plant sound. At a future date, the district may wish to increase school size, but not beyond a maximum in most cases of 1500 pupils per plant.

All new sites should be large enough for this enrollment.

3. The district should have in operation five high schools by 1960. Recommended locations are: Acalanes High, serving Lafayette, part of Orinda, and a small portion of Walnut Creek; Las Lomas High, serving Walnut Creek; Miramonte High, serving Moraga-Canyon; a high school in Tice Valley, serving the southern and eastern sections of Walnut Creek with the potentiality of also serving portions of the Moraga area in the region of Burton Ranch.

Also needed is a high school in upper Moraga, serving the southern portion of the Lafayette Elementary District and Moraga.

"Beyond 1960 the high school district will need at least two and possibly three additional plants.

The area of the San Pablo Reservoir, Glorietta and lower Moraga are recommended for consideration.

Sites for the Tice Valley and upper Moraga schools have been recommended to the board for immediate consideration." The district recently filed a suit of eminent domain for 49 acres of Tice Valley, Dollar Ranch properties.

Stanford researchers estimate, at present costs, a total building program of between $13 and $15 million, with the immediate building program up to 1956 likely to cost approximately $6 million.

Revewing the Acalanes district's financial capabilities, the research report notes that, "the Acalanes district is not a wealthy district," and that growh will outstrip the rate of income increase through rising assessed valuation.

THE REPORT OBSERVES that within the foreseeable future it is, "unlikely that the district will be able to finance the construction of necessary plans to house its enrollments within the limitations of its bonding capacity."

The need for eventual state aid is predicted.

Commenting on the Stanford group report Acalanes district Superintendent Neil M. Parsons stated that, "this report essentially confirms earlier less extensive predictions held by school trustees, and soberly emphsizes the complex problems confronting the high school district as it faces tremendous growth starting now and running the next eight years and more."

"As in the past, the school trustees are concerned with insuring pupils of the district, as economically as is possible, the best educational program and facilities it is within the power of the community to provide. Planning, construction, and curriculum development will continue in this concept," Parsons concluded.

They are William H. Mattos, Frank Mottos, Farry Gronzotto, Bert Bertagnolli, Frank Beach, M. J. Lucas Conduit Construction Company, Pacitic Coast Aggregates, Sun Valley Lumber Company, Pacific Clay Products.

Sam Watts, Alex Quintana, Earl Shropshire, Dick Logefeil, H. Christensen, Harry Todd, Fred Wilson, J. H. Jones, Gordon Davidson, Lewis Dannels, Roosevelt McCoy, Sam S. Brear.

Percy Laws, Jr., Conrad Stroer, Gallagher & Burk, Jack Gallagher, Lafayette Plumbing, Janes Plumbing, D. K. Young L. & H. Excavators, Jim Martino and Central Contra Costa Sanitary District.

"This is truly a fine example of community endeavor when forty firms and inidivduals support the construction of a nonprofit center providing rehabilitation for Contra Costa County's handicapped," declared Charles Wood, president of the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center's Board of Directors, in accepting the gift.

Supervisors Are Cool to Park Urgings

The County Board of Supervisors last week were cool to proposals for financing a $150,000 program for expansion of the park system, including a bond issue, direct taxation or use of some sales tax funds.

Ralfe Miller of Lafayette, chairman of the County Park and Recreation Commission, told the board that the $150,000 is needed in the next fiscal year for obtaining one or more of the possible sites for parks.

This includes 1500 acres in Briones Valley, now owned by the East Bay Municipal Utility District, or 1000 acres near Hercules, or 500 acres in the vicinity of Cowell estate.

The supervisors indicated that this might be a little premature and Supervisor Warren Buchanan said that the voters should be called upon to decide means of financing.

Miller delcared that good park sites are dwindling, and that costs are rising, and quick action is necessary.

Sites are the primary consideration at this time, Supervisor Ivan Goyak said, in agreement with Miller.

There will be a service of Holy Communion at 8 a.m. at which the Rev. Albert Lucas, vicar, will be the celebrant.

Mr. Lucas has announced that a program designed to encourage attendance of the entire family at the 10 o'clock service will be inaugurated this Sunday. Younger children will be cared for in a nursery in the vicarage basement.

Older children will remain with their parents during the first half hour of the church service and will go to the undercroft during the sermon hymn for the showing of a religious film.

There will be no mid-week celebration of Holy Communion this week as the vicar will be at the Bishop's Ranch Intermediate Camp during the week.

Meadow Pool Prepares For Mid-July Opening

Culmination of seven months work by members of the Meadow Pool will come on July 14 or July 15, when the new pool opens.

Situated between the Moraga Meadows and Glorietta areas, and designed to serve these areas, the pool's membership list of 250 has been filled since last year, according to Frank Leibold, pool president.

Leibold adds, however, that a waiting list for memberships is being maintained, in case of members dropping out.

WORK ON THE large L-shaped swimming pool at Heather Lane and Valley Drive began last November, when volunteer workers, recruited from the membership, started on the road to the July opening by laying 375 feet of concrete culvert.

The outside aqua facility has been designed with a 75 by 35 foot "wading and splashing" area in the unique set up, and a 25 by 30 foot deep-end diving section.

According to Leibold, the pool will be open six days weekly from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. The pool is expected to employ one full time life guard and an extra guard to watch over the swimmers during rush hours.

ANOTHER FEATURE of the pool will be the swimming lessons to be given by the guard in the mornings from 8 to 10.

Norm Pressley, rules committee chairman, has completed his set of pool rules in preparation for opening day. The rules, however, states Leibold, are tentative in nature and may be changed if found unsatisfactory.

Members will be able to enter the six-acre pool site through the Valley Drive entrance.

Party to Aid Blind

The Orinda Estrellita Chapter of Recreation for the Blind is making final arrangements for a big evening to be held at the Buckeye Ranch in Lafayette on July 3.

There will be a Chuck-Wagon Dinner, dancing, a hayride and swimming in the newly completed pool. All Orindans and their guests are invited to attend this evening of fund-raising recreation in behalf of Enchanted Hills Summer Camp.

For further information call Mrs. Gene Hopper, CL 4-5725 or Mrs. Ed Higgins, CL 4-2605. Tickets are $5 per couple.

Acalanes Group Requests Traffic, Bus Improvement

The Acalanes Valley Improvement Association, at its last quarterly meeting, voted to send letters to the School Board and to the State Highway Patrol in an effort to gain improved school bus and traffic conditions.

Additional school bus stops along Acalanes Road were requested in a letter from the association's secretary "in view of increased traffic there."

Letters were also written to the highway patrol authorities asking them to patrol Acalanes Road for speeding motorists.

A letter signed by a number of valley families, in which concern was expressed over the inadequacy of existing culverts in one area was also placed on file.

The letter stated that because of the manner in which new roads are being bulldozed in the Hidden Valley area, additional runoff may be diverted into culverts, which were "already taxed to the limit last winter."

The association went on record in favor of the county's developing a new road to connect the Glorietta area with the present highway into Lafayette near the Lafayette Reservoir.

It is also in favor of retaining Acalanes Road in its present state.

Moraga Dateline

School's out, and the neighborhood resounds to the happy (?) voices of little children. Thoughts of how to "get away from it all" begin to enter our minds. A bit difficult to do, in this case.

Graduation night was, according to some of the past graduates, one of the nicest ever held in Moraga School. Decorations, accomplished with lattice work, ivy, fern and red geraniums, were most attractive—real thanks extended to our three teachers, Mr. Tell, Mrs. Hauskens and Mrs. Oldford, (who was unable to attend, after all her work) by the decorating committee, the graduates' mothers.

Also, much appreciation to the ones responsible for the special refreshments.

EXTRACURRICULAR WORK

Leading up to the final evening was quite a round of social activity for the eighth graders, Karen Glasky, Carol Freitas, Ronnie Sanders and Johnny Thune. Tuesday noon, June 5, the four youngsters were luncheon guests of Mrs. Eilore Dickenson, at the Willows Inn, where, they say, they had a very enjoyable time, and plenty to eat.

Tuesday, June 12, the eighth grade was invited to attend a day of picnicking and swimming at the Orinda Pool, by the Pine Grove School. They were able to get acquainted this way, with a lot of their future classmates at Miramonte High School. It's a fine idea.

Also ending the school year, were the various clubs. On June 12 the Brownies, Troop 23, with the Girl Scouts, Troop 96, held the Fly Up and Court of Awards ceremony, at the Moraga School. Invited to attend were the mothers of the girls. The two Brownies Cathy Gesinger and Judy Ellison, who flew up into the Girl Scouts, were welcomed into the troop by Leader Margaret Evans.

YEAR END FESTS

Girl Scouts receiving second class badges were: Sharla Sanders, Sharron Levy, Sharon Read, Peggy Evans, Patricia Munster and Judy Gesinger. Receiving five year pins were Bonnie Hamilton and Priscilla Devin, Bonnie receiving also, her first class badge. All nine girls in Troop 96 received their troop numbers and badges for work accomplished.

Received into the Girl Scouts was Penny Welsh of Rheem Boulevard whose family is new to our area from the East.

Celebrating the end of the year, the Girl Scouts, together with the two new Fly-Ups, held a barbecue and swim party at the home of Prescilla Devin, on June 13. No more meetings over the summer months.

At the final meeting of the Cub Scouts, Pack No. 57, Moraga Den, Bill Rohrer was graduated into the Boy Scouts. The need for a new Den Mother to take a den on Rheem Boulevard will be apparent by September when meetings resume. With the entrance of new boys, the present group will be too large for one den to handle.

The crying need for Boy Scout leaders is quite acute. There are several boys eligible to join, and their interest is high. All they need is someone to take an interest in THEM. Let's see what we can do by next fall!

Sunday was Father's Day, and a fine day it was. Saturday, the Thune family took father to the beach at Santa Cruz. The weather was perfect — especially so for some fine sunburns—but the water was mighty cold.

Sunday was spent resting up! it's tiring doing nothing all day but play on the beach. However, that kind of tiredness, I can do with.

Vic Pagliere celebrated the day by bringing home his new daughter, Mary Ione, and her mother, Ruby. Mary was born at the Oakland Kaiser Hospital at 9:11 p.m. on June 13. A wide-awake, fat baby, she weighed in at 8 pounds, 15 ounces. The Paglieres have two other children, Susan and John.

According to the proud parents' report, she has been a very good baby, sleeping most of the time and waking only to eat. That's the kind to have, after all. Congratulations, Ruby and Vic.

STORK MANEUVERS

In preparation for the arrival of another new Moragan, Mrs. Patrick (Sally) Nelson, was honored with a baby shower at the home of Mrs. Sarah Glasky of 280 Rheem Boulevard. The 25 guests presented Mrs. Nelson with a lot of lovely, useful gifts. Decorations were done in pink and white, with the predominating stork in attendance on the table.

Prizes were given for winners of games played, one of which sounded like fun. It seems the lights were turned out, each participant having in her hands paper and pencil. The object was to see who could draw the most likely baby picture in the dark. I'll bet there were some hilarious results.

Refreshments were in the form of punch, coffee and pastries decorated with little bootees.

A big WELCOME HOME to CAPTAIN Harold Parker, who has spent the past month traveling around this fair country of ours. Harold returned on Saturday, via plane, from the New England States, where he spent three weeks visiting his mother and various relatives.

Previous ot that, he spent a week attending the Sojourner Convention of the Masonic Lodge, which was held in Charleston, S. C., where he renewed acquaintances with a lot of old friends.

Just to make a liar of me, who should appear in our town but the Bill Rhodes. Although they were here principally on business, they managed to mix it with pleasure and got around to see a lot of friends. Son Tony was busily selling soap to earn his campship to the YMCA Summer Camp—a worthy project (I say partially).

An out-of-state vistor to Camino Pablo, is Buddy Horn, 13, who traveled to Oakland, via bus, from Dallas, Texas, to visit Mr. and Mrs. Chester Madsen, grandparents he was meeting for the first time.

Buddy is the stepson of Robert A. Leal, son of Mrs. Julie Madsen.

Square Dancers To Have Ball at Rheem Center

More than 50 Contra Costa and Alameda county dance groups have been invited to participate in Rheem Center's gala outdoor folk and square dance festivities next Friday night at the center, announces Frank Kerrigan, president of the Rheem Center Merchants Association.

Sponsoring the rustic ball, the association has disclosed that the affair will get under way at 8 p.m. right in the middle of the center, on Park Street, which will be blocked off from traffic.

Included among the prominent square dance callers expected to be present will be Bob Dewan and Jack Evans.

Among the emcees for the various types of group dances will be Stan Valentine, Ken Peden, Demae Hollingsworth and Bill Sanger.

The session will be open to any and all interested, free of charge.

Squares and promenades will be accompanied by phonograph records over a public address system, and everyone is invited to participate, the Merchants Association announces.

Supervisors Discussing County Budget Slice

Contra Costa Supervisors started their second week of daily budget discussions Monday with only $320,000 trimmed from budget requests for county departments totaling $27,318,135.

The same departments operated on an approved budget of $24,826,582 for the fiscal year ending July 1.

County Administrator D. M. Teeter noted that the present trimming has included only three offices — building maintenance, auditor-controller and sheriff — and declined to predict whether a tax rate increase was in prospect for county property owners.

Already eliminated from the budget are an air conditioning system at the new Martinez County Administration Building which would cost $30,000; $65,000 for warehousing facilities in Richmond; $40,000 for an elevator at the jail; $70,000 for a hospital laundry and $62,000 for Juvenile Hall improvements.

Sheriff Objects

Sheriff Harry Brown this week objected to the decision of Contra Costa County Personnel Director F. E. Emery which blocked provisional appointment of a sheriff's sergeant to replace Sgt. John Jagard, recently promoted to undersheriff.

Emery ruled that the provisional appointment, which would allow the appointee to receive sergeants pay, could not be made until a civil service examination had been held.

Brown announced his intention to promote Sgt. Walter Young of Walnut Creek to acting captain in charge of the criminal division on June 8. Jagard had held the position for 18 months at sergeants pay.

Surplus Funds

A surplus in county aid funds of $60,000 to $70,000 from the 1955-56 budget has been predicted by William G. Golden ,county welfare director.

Golden explained that the entire department was operating within its budgeted allotments, and that recently many welfare cases had been put on the discontinued list.

Gets New Post

County Superintendent of Schools B. O. Wilson has been elected president of Superintendent Division of the County and Rural Area of the National Education Association.

He will preside over the 1956 conference of the division's 3000 members at Atlanta, Georgia, October 14-17.

Rolls Displayed

The 1956-57 Contra Costa County tax assessment rolls will be deposited for public inspection with County Clerk Walter Paasch July 2, as required by State law.

The rolls will be open for inspection from 8 a.m. until 5 p.m. Mondays through Fridays until July 16.

The board of supervisors will begin sitting as a board of equalization to hear protests of individual property owners on July 2. Hearings must be completed by July 16.

Protests must be filed with the board in writing and signed before a notary by the property owner or his legally recognized agent before the board will hear the protest.

Road Shortcut

A four-mile shortcut between central and eastern Contra Costa County and Carquinez Bridge will be opened in October.

PLANS FOR THE coming year are begun by Eldo Ewert, newly elected chairman of the Diablo Red Cross, seated, Harold Apger, new treasurer, left, and Mrs. C. G. Andreasen, second vice president. Elections were held recently in the Walnut Creek recreation building. Vice chairman is Mrs. Stuart Loe of Ygnacio Valley. Retiring Chairman is Bill Hayward. — Sun photo by Elizabeth vander Mark.

Fire Prevention Attempt Fails

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mathewson, 100 Oak Hill Road, Lafayette, were worried about the fire hazard caused by the dry weeds and trash on the lot adjoining their Maze Antique Shop at 1024 Orchard Road, Lafayete.

Mrs. Mathewson, when a small girl in Chicago, had been caught in a hotel fire, and since, she said, has been terrified of fires.

The Mathewsons, therefore, were particularly anxious to eliminate the hazard, and so hired Ray Arquette, a carpenter, of 2710 Cherry Lane, Walnut Creek, to clear and rototiller the lot.

Arquette progressed in his task throughout last week, and arrived on the property at about 2 p.m. Saturday to continue, along with his wife and daughter.

At 2:30 p.m., fire engines of the Lafayette Fire Department came screaming up Orchard Road toward the bone-dry lot. A fire had broken out, came the call, and was spreading over the property.

Nearly two acres of the straw-strewn land had been seared, and the several fruit-bearing trees scorched by flames by the time the hoses were able to extinguish the blaze.

Arquette, whose wife had phoned the fire department, told The Sun that he thought he had dropped a lighted cigarette in a pile of weeds just a few minutes after he had arrived to eliminate the hazard.

"I think it must have been that cigarette that started the fire," he said.

With trepidation Mrs. Mathewson, whose husband is currently recovering from a heart attack, looked from the window of the antiue shop at the burning lot.

She breathed much easier, however, when the fire was controlled and it was revealed that no further property damage had been done.

13,000 Throng Catholic Rites

Many local residents were among the 13,000 men who attended the "Day of Dedication to God and Country" last Sunday at the San Francisco Cow Palace.

The huge throng, which almost filled the Cow Palace, spent the day "In solemn observance of the Feast of the Sacred Heart."

Subdivision Approved

The County Planning Commission on Tuesday approved a map for Oak Grove Manor Unit No. 4, a subdivision of 44 lots located west of Wiget Road, and north of Walnut Avenue in the South Ygnacio Valley area. Petitioner is James Ganley, who is building three other units in the area.

Are We Buying A Pig-in-a-Poke?

There is every possibility that voters in Central Contra Costa County will be asked to approve the formation of a special two-county rapid transit district in the November 6 general election.

Formation of such a district could be the solution to many of the vexing problems of Central Contra Costa County, but it could also provide many headaches of its own.

There is no question but that some form of cheap, comfortable inter-urban transportation is needed, especially for the growing area of Alamo-Lafayette-Walnut Creek-Orinda-Pleasant Hill.

But this proposed system is tied in with Alameda County, which means that although this area receives the support of the tremendous tax base on "the other side of the hills," it also receives a fair proportion of the headaches.

Would we be helping Alameda County settle its Key System problem, by helping foot the bill while we derived little of the benefit?

Proponents of the two-county system say no, but it should be thoroughly investigated now, while there is time.

Proponents also point out that the taxpayer will always have the last word, in that he must approve bond issues by a two-thirds majority, and that "Contra Costa County alone could defeat any bond issue if not satisfied with the program."

But action at the polls is notably untrustworthy, as witness the failure of specific poll-taking firms in predicting the outcome of any given issue.

Therefore, the time to investigate the proposed rapid transit system is now, before it is formed, not afterwards, when it may be too late.

The Contra Costa Mayor's Conference will consider the problem at the end of this month, and then individual city councils will take action.

In the meantime, investigate the problems and the benefits. The time to take action is now, not later.

What They Say . .

Livin' Easy In Summer?

In the course of history each of the seasons — summer, winter, spring and fall — has come in for its share of plaudits and disapprovals by the poets and songsters.

But no matter how we feel about them, the seasons will roll, and each will retain its own peculiarities . . . the rush of a brisk breeze in winter, the combination of sprinkles and showers of spring, and the HEAT of summertime.

SWELTERING OVER our typewriter, we wondered whether the blaze and laze of summer were what the local folk prefer to the offerings of the other seasons, and asking, "Is summer your favorite season? If not, which is?" this is what we learned:

Mrs. Everett R. Dempster, 15 El Toyonal, Orinda quipped that she "certainly likes to be warm."

When we noted that this was obviously the weather for it, she added that if summer is not her favorite season, then spring would take the cake.

"Ten years ago," she said, "I came to Orinda from Berkeley, because Berkeley was just too cool."

Slight disagreement came from Mrs. Donn R. Court, 3651 Boyer Circle, Lafayette, who claimed that spring was definitely her favorite season: Why?

"Well," she answered, "everything seems to be in bloom. The world is wide-awake and full of promise."

POETIC SENTIMENTS also sprang from Mrs. George W. DeSellem, 12 Diablo Circle, Lafayette.

When we called on her, she was busy making things bloom in her summer garden.

"I think that spring is my favorite season," she told us, "but summer is pretty wonderful, too."

Her enthusiasm for the warm-weather months stemmed from the fact that "A person can get outside in these seasons."

A very emphatic "Yes" came from Mrs. Jerome A. Whittaker, 2423 Golden Gate Way, Lafayette, when asked if summer were her pet time of year.

"It is — very definitely," she said. "I like everything about it . . . the hot weather, the flowers . . . just everything."

Mrs. Leslie Geary Jr., of 2123 Danville Highway, said, "Of course, I'm like most people, and like the summer best, but that's because I like the heat!"

Since the Geary home is two-story, with plenty of insulation, she added that, "If we want to be cool, we can pull all the shades, and if we want to be out, there are oak trees in front, and room to ramble in."

MRS. GEARY ALSO likes winter sports, to a lesser degree, and even cloudy and stormy weather around Christmas time.

Though she likes summer most of all, Mrs. F. W. Silsley Jr., of 510 Patterson Boulevard, Pleasant Hill, says that, "I want all the seasons, so we can enjoy summer all the more."

She is a native Californian, from Oakland.

Since it affords her family the opportunity to rush for the beaches, and splash about, Mrs. E. C. Kaiser of 179 Luella Drive, Pleasant Hill, likes that period between spring and fall the best.

BORN IN Washington, she was raised in the Los Angeles area, and so is accustomed to living "by the sea."

Upbringing in Idaho, where the winters are plenty cold, has made Robert Colwell of 1300 Juanita Drive, Walnut Creek, highly apprecative of the coastal climates, be they damp, hot or windy.

He has stuck to the East Bay area for years, and says "I wouldn't like to move even if I did prefer winter sports, which I don't—for the Sierras are handy enough for that sort of thing."

Ground Observer Group 'Briefed'

An indoctrination meeting for all Walnut Creek Ground Observer Corps personnel was held Wednesday evening, in the cafeteria of Las Lomas High School.

Some 250 people who signed up for skywatching on "Ground Observer Corps Day" June 9, were to be welcomed into this phase of the nation's attack warning system by William W. Ward, director of the Contra Costa County Office of Civil Defense.

Sector Sgt. Joseph Coughlin, USAF, explained the purpose of "Operation Skywatch" and reporting procedures. Mrs. Isabelle Salisbury, Post Supervisor, assisted by Barbara J. Sturgeon, CD Coordinator, arranged the skywatching schedules and made assignments.

The Walnut Creek Post, located on the grounds of the Armory, 1800 Carmel Drive, was formerly in Lafayette. All members of the Lafayette GOC are being transferred to Walnut Creek. It is hoped that this Post will be operated on a round-the-clock basis.

"If you are interested in giving at least two hours a week to this very important work, please get in touch with Mrs. Salisbury, AT 3-2691, the Civil Defense Office, Martinez 2888, commented Mrs. Sturgeon.

Harvey Lyon Sells Company

The Lyon Storage and Moving Company of Oakland, owned by Harvey B. Lyon, who in August sold his 16 acre Woodland Lodge estate in Lafayette, has been sold.

Purchaser is the Neptune Storage Inc., of New Rochelle, N. Y., which reportedly paid about $1 million.

Lyon established the firm in 1906, after graduating from the University of California. He and his wife are touring Europe, and on their return will settle in Oakland, where he will continue as vice president for public relations.

Letters to The Editor

FREEWAY ROUTE

Dear Editor:

This is an open letter to Utah Construction Company, attention: Frank M. Keller and Frank Draeger.

You have stated that a Shepherd Canyon Freeway routed through Redwood Canyon would be a "scenic parkway which would make the beauty of the redwood trees accessible to countless thousands of persons." I would like to point out the fact that the present county road which winds under the redwoods beside San Leandro Creek has been used by "countless thousands of persons" since 1852.

It should be made clear the "some groups" you refer to as opposing this route because "of fears it would destroy more than 200 redwood trees" have never gone on record for any such reason as a specified number of trees destroyed. These groups, which include local, county, state and national organizations such as Sierra Club, Contra Costa County Park and Recreational Council and Nature Conservancy, are all opposed because a freeway would render the whole Redwood Canyon area useless for park, recreational and conservation purposes.

IT IS INTERESTING to note that you think it entirely possible to construct a 200-foot freeway along an 18-foot railroad bed "without disturbing more than 20 trees." The total width of the Canyon is only 200 to 300 feet in some places—and what of the beautiful creek? Why no mention of the Canyon Elementary School and the 20 homes along the lower part of the Canyon?

Mr. Booker, state highway engineer, has stated the direct Moraga Valley route was favored by state engineers because it would "hurt the least and benefit the most." It is cheaper and shorter and the highway user costs are millions cheaper than other three routes studied. Yet you claim the Redwood Canyon route would have "important advantages" over the state-approved route for the following reasons:

1. "Eliminate the costly construction of a 1200-foot bridge." You know, as well as I, that bridge construction, according to state highway estimates, runs $150 to $200 per lane foot, while tunnel construction runs to an estimated $700 to $1000 per lane foot.

ON YOUR POINT 2, in which you claim elimination of "17,000 feet of 6 per cent grade," I claim this would be hard to do as the the state estimates only 10,000 feet of 6 per cent grade on the whole of this route. The direct Moraga Valley route, according to their figures, is only 16,000 feet, counting on both sides of the proposed tunnel.

Your point 3, pertaining to "maximum utilization" of thousands of acres of "prime residential land" owned by Utah Company in Moraga Valley, I believe is not the concern of the taxpayers who will use the freeway and pay for its cost.

Your point 4 really perplexes me—you claim the Redwood Canyon right-of-way costs would be "vastly cheaper" than costs of state-preferred route over "land which is under intensive development."As late as last Sunday, as far as I could see there wasn't a pear tree disturbed.

Contradictorily with the above is your last "important advantage" mentioned—that "hundreds of Moraga Valley residents" opposed the Moraga Valley route because it "bisects the last remaining vacant land in the valley." As for the hundreds of Moraga Valley residents who you state believe the freeway "will be dangerously close to the new Miramonte High School," you make no mention of the like hundreds who believe a fenced freeway 400 feet from the high school athletic field is not dangerous.

GLADYS L. SHALLY,
Canyon.

Under The Sun

By Herman Silverman

Perhaps you can help . . .

During the past few days, at least six teen-agers called to apply for summer work. They were all mighty fine kids and I wish I could have put them to work. We had already hired several for part-time summer work.

Suddenly this occurred to me: Our community does rather well for our younger boys and girls. Scheduled for summer months are recreation programs, youth camps and outings, Junior Museum program, baseball and softball leagues. But what about our teen-agers?

There are very few activities planned for them. How are they supposed to keep busy? Of all age groups, I think we offer our teen-agers the least.

What can be done?

A job is good for a teen-ager. And many, many of them want work—part-time, full time or any time. What can we do to help?

Well, here is an idea.

Starting next week and continuing through July, The Sun will give to any local teen-ager a free "Work Wanted" classified ad. These will be published in the Walnut Creek Sun, Lafayette Sun, Pleasant Hill Sun, Orinda Sun and Sun Shopping News in the work wanted column of the classified pages.

Let's follow these rules: 10 words, briefly describing work wanted, first and last name, age and phone number. Please write the ad on a slip of paper and bring into one of The Sun offices. They will not be accepted by mail or phone. (A few teen-agers are known for their humor, so this should prevent some practical jokes.)

Oops—change the rules . . .

Each ad will be published at least twice. Wait, let's change the rules a bit. If John or Mary is shy and doesn't want his or her name listed, that will be okay. Ad copy must be in by 3 o'clock Monday of the week of publication. (This is earlier than our regular deadline but will help out our shop problems.) Needless to say, The Sun cannot be responsible in any way.

I am certain there are many jobs waiting for the teen-agers (13 to 19). Some stores may need vacation relief, although there is not too much of this. Many, many residents need help cleaning up their yards and doing gardening and watering during vacations. Baby sitting and child care are wide open fields.

A success story

Some months ago an ambitious high school lad placed a classified ad in The Sun papers (plug: 5 papers for 1 bargain price) seeking "any kind of work." He ran the ad several weeks and had so much work he couldn't handle it.

In any event, here is a way that we can possibly bring the "job seekers" and "help wanters" together. If you have something for these kids to do, please give them the opportunity.

CANDIDATE GRATEFUL

Dear Editor:

I would like to take this opportunity to express my sincere appreciation to the voters of the Second Supervisorial District who supported me in the recent election, making it possible for my name to appear as one of the two candidates on the November ballot.

I particularly wish to thank those members of the Citizens Committee for Better Government who gave so tirelessly of their time and effort. And while I'm saying "thank you" may I extend a special bouquet to The Suns for their fair, impartial and complete coverage of a campaign that dealt in honest facts rather than in personalities and insinuations.

To me, the most memorable moments of the past few months are not election night or the thrill of winning the primary, but rather the many friendships I have made and the sincere interest the people of Contra Costa County have evinced in their local government.

Thank you again.

C. R. WALLACE

Dear Editor:

It should be refreshing to citizens cherishing the freedoms written into the Constitution to learn of the Supreme Court decision of June 11, 1956.

The "numbers racket" of the Eisenhower Administration has finally been struck down, and exposed by the decision directing the government to desist from firing employees because they will not reveal who they associate with.

The government as well as any fair minded employer should be concerned with performance on the job, and what religion, political party or friends the employee has should be none of the employer's business.

PUBLIC EDUCATION

Dear Editor:

The goal of public education is to pass on to our youth the good that is found in our American Heritage and to provide them with the skills and knowledge necessary for these youths to live a happy, constructive life in our society.

The success of public education in reaching this goal is dependent upon many factors. One of which is an understanding partnership that must exist between the school and the community, making them one and the same.

The faculty of Pleasant Hill Intermediate School feels that it has a rich relationship with its community and wishes to take this opportunity to tell you we are grateful for the efforts of your press in helping to make this relationship possible.

David K. Woods, Teacher

Dear Editor:

Congratulations on the fine recognition of The Sun in winning second place in community relations and promotion in competition with weekly and daily newspapers throughout the United States.

This is a well deserved honor for an outstanding local newspaper.

Mrs. Ed Dunlop is Adoption Leader

Mrs. Edward Dunlop will head the slate of officers of the Diablo Adoption Auxiliary it was decided at a June 4 meeting at the home of President Mrs. George Pence, 871 Acalanes Road, Lafayette.

Other officers include Mesdames Jack Marchant, vice president; Jack Lynch, recording secretary; Jonas Schreider, corresponding secretary, and David Bowman, treasurer.

Miss Muriel Nelson of the adoption unit, County Social Service Department, reported that she and Mrs. Patricia Galpin and others from the staff attended the regional meeting of the Child Welfare League Conference in Los Angeles in early May.

"What Children Should Know About Adoption" was the subject of a talk made by Mrs. Foster Davis, chairman, speaker's panel of the Diablo Adoption Auxiliary, to the Fellowship Circle of Hillcrest Congregational Church, May 24th. Mrs. Davis Noted that, "Adoption is so common today that children question their parents about other children who are adopted. Parents themselves need to understand something of adoption so that they can answer these questions understandingly.

"Children today, who have seen the arrival of an adopted child into the home of their neighbors, or relatives; who have heard a little of the adult conversations about how long the parents had to wait for their adopted child and then see how happy everyone was when it came—accept adoption very naturally and easily," Mrs. Davis said.

The Auxiliary will not meet until September when the date will be announced. If anyone is interested in the Diablo Adoption Auxiliary, please contact Mrs. Russell Ussinger, CL 4-5106 or Mrs. David Bowman, YE 5-0901. Questions pertaining to adoption may be addressed to the Question and Answer Service, P. O. Box 44, Lafayette.

Lake Tahoe Honeymoon Site for the De Klotzes

St. Pauls Episcopal Church in Oakland was the setting of the recent nuptial vows taken by Meade Ann Milisich and Robert Neil DeKlotz, who, as Mr. and Mrs. DeKlotz, left for a honeymoon at Lake Tahoe after the ceremony.

Meade Ann is the daughter of of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Carroll Spencer, 3557 Boyer Circle, Lafayette. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wesley DeKlotz of San Jose.

With the Rev. Robert C. Clingman officiating, the bride was given in marriage by her father.

Serving the June bride in a pale yellow poie de beau gown was matron of honor Mrs. Earl Vicars of Orinda, Meade Ann's sister. Other attendants were Mrs. C. M. Knauer and Mrs. F. W. DeKlotz Jr., both sorority sisters of the bride at the University of California.

The new Mrs. DeKlotz was a Delta Delta at the university, after graduating from Acalanes High School.

Attending the groom, a Sigma Alpha Epsilon at U.C., was the best man, his brother, Fred W. DeKlotz Jr. Ushers were William McCollum, Richard Phillips, Herbert Dedo and Cyril Appel. Ring bearer was John Vicars.

Meade Ann was gowned in a poie de soi dress with a full skirt and fitted bodice, a scooped out neckline with tine fitted sleeves. The neckline was trimmed with pleated nylon net and Alencon lace. Her skirt was in two tiers trimmed with matching Alencon lace.

She wore a seed pearl crown with a finger-tip illusion veil. In her arms were a bouquet of flowers and a prayer book covered with stephanotis and lily of the valley.

Mrs. Milisich wore a gown of rose beige lace over taffeta, with scooped neck and three-quarter length sleeves. This was complemented by a taffeta hat and accessories to match.

A light blue sheath dress of organza over taffeta was Mrs. DeKlotz's attire as she greeted guests. She also wore matching accessories and white butterfly orchids.

The new Mrs. De Klotz will be teaching at the Lafayette School in September and the couple will settle in the East Bay while the groom finishes his studies at the university.

Dons Finish Perfect Year On the Links

The Acalanes golf team, under the guidance of Coach Jim Nelson, has set up an all-time win record of 23 straight, including the County Tournament, held at Mt. Diablo Country Club on June 8.

San Ramon wound up in second place, with Pleasant Hill third and Antioch fourth.

Included among the Dons' victims were the Cal Frosh, whom they downed 15-3.

The six-man team consisted of Wally Marsh, Skip Fiske, Bill Judge, Wade Wallace, Chip Peacock and Mike Downs.

Chances are the win streak will be extended next season, as all team members will be back for another season of play.

Wade Wallace had a perfect season as he played in and won every match throughout the season.

All home matches were played at the Orinda Country Club, which for a number of years has extended its facilities to the Dons.

Oddly, all of the players are from Orinda, which could indicate that the Miramonte High Links star is rising.

Outside of league play, the Dons tackled and defeated such teams as Richmond, Piedmont and San Mateo.

NO EXCEPTIONS

There are no exceptions to obeying traffic rules. The motorist who takes a chance now and then is headed for trouble. Make it a rule to drive lawfully and sensibly all the time, not just most of the time.

Ed Bill Tosses No-hitter

June 12 found Contra Costa Sand and Gravel winning an extra inning 8-7 game over Kings Food Center.

It was 4-4 at the end of the regulation seven innings of play, and Kings looked to be in a good spot when they scored a pair of runs in the top of the eighth, only to have Contra Costa come from behind to score three runs on three hits in their turn at bat, to turn what appeared to be defeat into victory.

Pitcher Will Buechel hit a single to score shortstop Ed Medeiros, who had doubled and driven in two runs. The run broke the tie and ended the game, which was played in the Walnut Creek park.

WINNING PITCHER Buechel gave up 14 hits, while the losing chucker, Ed Vick, gave up but six safe blows.

Leading sticker in the game was Gene Bell of Kings with four for five, all singles.

The next day, June 13, found Contra Costa Sand and Gravel wrapping up another league win at Walnut Creek's Municipal Park when they stomped Middleton and Marchi, 10-3.

The losers outhit the winners, 7-5, but errors and loose play led to their downfall. The C.C. nine was off to a flying start, never to be headed, when they scored seven runs on two hits in the opening frame.

WILL GAUSMAN was the winning hurler, while Jim Rose and Sal Mecurio went the route for Middleton and Marchi. Top sticker for the winners was left fielder Stu McColluch, who had a pair of singles and a home run in four trips to the plate.

Last Friday saw the Walnut Creek lights go on as Rheem shut out Serpa Pontiac-Buick but the lights might have been out as far as Serpa was concerned.

Big Ed Bill on the hill for the winners threw a no hitter to produce a 10-0 win. Five men got on base as Bill hit two batters and walked three, but he struck out 16 to close the gate.

Bill Mannery, pitching for the losers, gave up 11 hits.

Third baseman Bob Wierick of Rheems Center had a pair of singles in three times at bat, while teammate first baseman John Wierick had a double and a single in a like number of tries.

Bill notched another win last Tuesday at the Walnut Creek park when he threw a three hitter while his club garnered six safe blows.

Three runs by Rheem in the first inning proved to be more than enough as Kings Foods' lone tally came in the 4th. Rheem added single runs in the third and sixth.

Ed Vick was charged with the defeat. Rheem's Jim Teicheira topped the belters with a pair of singles in four times at bat. The game marked the end of the first half of play, which finds Rheem Center in the lead with a 9-1 record.

Contra Costa Sand and Gravel is second with eight wins and two losses. Hoffman's Liquor is third with a 6-4 won-lost record. Middleton and Marchi is 5-5, Kings 3-7, and Serpa Pontiac-Buick is in the cellar with one win and nine losses.

Current play is scheduled as follows:

Today: Rheem vs. Sand and Gravel at Walnut Creek.

June 26: Kings vs. Sand and Gravel at Walnut Creek. Serpa vs. Rheem at Martinez.

June 27: Kings vs. Serpa at Walnut Creek.

June 28: Walnut Creek Girls at Walnut Creek.

June 29: Middleton and Marchi vs. Sand and Gravel at Martinez.

Win, Loss Put Lafayette Legion In Tie for Lead

The Lafayette Junior Legion baseball team won one and lost one this week, and as a result are in a tie with the Concord nine for top spot in league standings.

The win was an easy one as Walnut Creek could only field seven players last Monday and had to forfeit.

The loss, on the other hand, was a tough one as the Lafayette hiders went down, 10-6, at Concord on Tuesday in a twilight game.

The local club was off to a flying start, piling up a 6-1 advantage at the end of seven frames, only to have the roof fall in in the 8th, when Concord scored nine runs on four hits, three walks and seven errors.

Mike Kritscher, 14 years old southpaw, held the Concord team well in check with his southpaw slants for seven frames. In the 8th, errors and two hits got him in hot water and Steve Jordan took over.

The Lafayette nine fell apart at the seams as Concord went on a scoring splurge to rack up nine runs which, added to their single run in the 7th, gave them a 10-6 win.

Concord and Lafayette are now tied for first. Concord draws a bye Saturday in the league final, while Lafayette faces Pittsburg at Pittsburg in a game scheduled for 2:15 p.m. A Lafayette win would mean a playoff, while a loss would give the title to Concord.

In Tuesday's game Lafayette's All-county first baseman Jim Dinkel took hitting honors with three for four, including a home run, triple and a single.

Tomorrow Will See Windup of Legion Baseball

Junior Legion baseball winds up its local league play schedule tomorrow when Lafayette travels to Pittsburg, while Port Chicago hosts Walnut Creek.

Both games start at 2 p.m.

Concord draws a bye, since Martinez dropped out of league play.

A win by Lafayette would throw the standings into a two-way tie for first, with Concord.

The winner of the local section will advance to a playoff with the North Bay section winner, which at this writing appears to be El Cerrito.

400 Boys Get Set for Orinda Junior Baseball

Awaiting the call of "Play Ball!" 400 Orinda boys are warming up for the opening of the Orinda Junior Baseball League Monday at 7 p.m.

Parent-coaches will manage the teams in the third and fourth grade classification, that play at Del Rey and Glorietta Schools; fifth and sixth graders at Sleepy Hollow and Orinda Schools, and seventh and eighth graders at Pine Grove School.

Teams are being sponsored by local merchants and interested individuals.

Funds for the equipment came from a recent benefit basketball game between the Orinda All-Stars and the San Francisco 49ers.

The league was formed by Frank E. Isola, Orinda School District director of physical education and recreation, who in turn delegated operation of the league to Jack Clark, chief commissioner; William Hester, commissioner of the seventh and eighth grades; Ted Boyce, commissioner of the fifth and sixth grades league, and Don Wacks, commissioner of the third and fourth grade league.

Junior Baseball Takes up Prep Summer Sports Slack

By ERWIN MATTSON

Summer vacation is with us, and if it weren't for Youth League and Recreation League ball sports on the local scene would be on the slack side.

Legion ball winds up tomorrow, and prep sports will have had it, with the vacation period at hand.

In connection with Junior League Baseball ,it is interesting to note how far the young players have come, and how much they have developed in a relatively short period of time.

THEY STILL HAVE trouble hitting long ball, but four balls have gone over the fence at Acalanes since league play got underway. The semi-circular fence, which is 175 feet from home plate at all points, provides a much more formidable barrier, with its four foot height, than many though it would when it was first put up.

Personally, I like the idea of a semi-circular fence with all points the same distance from home plate. In most league ball parks left handers usually enjoy a relatively short right field fence. A right hander, in general, has a much longer blow in order to get the ball over the left or center field wall.

A lot of money has gone into the development of baseball for the kids in the local area, and the sponsors, along with the coaches and other workers, are to ge congratulated for their fine job.

"I could say it's south of town . . . or, it has 3 bedrooms, 2 baths . . . or it's California ranch . . . or there's a family room, den . . . or it's priced right at $22,100.00 . . . but what really impresses me are the "wide open spaces" . . . 1664 sq. ft. of living area for the wife to clean . . . and the yard area, oh dad's aching back, he will wish this generous ½ acre lot back with the Indians.

But it is said "Misery loves company" and as there will be four of these built around a very quiet, private court . . . all in all this will prove a happy investment."

Bike, Trike, Sun . . . And Success!

One bike, one trike, one wagon and nothing but loads of success! That's the story that's told by D. J. Hoyt of 3264 Sun Valley Ave., Walnut Creek, a happy user of The Sun's Bargain Counter classified ads.

Hoyt placed the ad to run in the Sun Shopping News, Walnut Creek Sun, Pleasant Hill Sun, Lafayette Sun and Orinda Sun for two weeks for $1.50 in the Bargain Counter, but he had sold his bike, trike and wagon the first day after the Sun Shopping News appeared.

Naturally, with results like this, there was no need to run the ad for a second week, so Hoyt's 50 cent re-run price for the second week was refunded.

It is results like this, which occur each week for hundreds of satisfied advertisers, that make The Sun classified pages the fastest, most reliable media for turning your surplus items into cash.

Why not do as Mr. Hoyt did? Look around your home and garage now, and then take advantage of The Sun's Bargain Counter or regular classified page. It will get results for you!

Boy Scouts Create Trust Fund Account

Boy Scout officers of the Mt. Diablo Council have taken a needed step to perpetuate scouting and to maintain scout activities by the creation of a trust fund, it was announced.

The area served by the Mt. Diablo Council includes Contra Costa County and Berkeley and Albany in Alameda County. Justice A. F. Bray, past president of the Mt. Diablo Council, has taken the leadership to secure initial funds to establish a trust account for scouting, he said.

Scouting has progressed from a small volunteer organization constantly in need of funds to a stable setup with permanent camps which must be maintained to round out the scout program. Many a citizen has had a desire to assist this work financially, but found no permanent place to give money or make a bequest.

It was for this purpose that Boy Scout Councils set up trust funds, Bray said.

American boyhood will benefit immeasurably from this step in the years to come, he added.

Income from trust funds will help to meet the operating costs of the local council and will also provide for the expansion and maintenance of the council camps.

Art Center's 'Guest Day' Will Feature Paintings

More than 300 invitations have been sent out to members and friends of the Valley Art Center for "Guest Day," a special event being planned by the Center's trustees and directors for June 30, from 4 to 7 p.m.

Setting will be the home of Dr. and Mrs. John Ellis, Springhill Road, Lafayette.

Special attraction on Guest Day, and of interest to all local art lovers, will be paintings by San Francisco artist Antonio Sotomayor.

Sharing the spotlight with Sotomayor will be Florence Swift, Berkeley sculptress whose works will be displayed in the garden and patios of the Ellis home.

A versatile artist, Sotomayor is widely known in this area for his active participation in all forms of art, particularly for his paintings and caricatures, many of which have appeared in newspapers, national magazines and children's books.

In San Francisco, Sotomayor has done murals for the Palace Hotel and settings for many ballets. He has just recently completed a large mosaic for the Methodist Church in Hillsdale, California.

As both painter and sculptress, Florence Swift has exhibited her work in New York and San Francisco. Her designs for cement and concrete garden panels were recently pictured in Sunset magazine.

Guest Day general chairman, J. Gordon Ainsworth said today that both artists will be present to meet Valley Art Center members and their friends.

Assisting the chairman are Messrs. and Mesdames Peter Howard, Michael Czaja and Robert Clough of Walnut Creek; Jack Noble, Rawlings Simon, and Philip Merrill of Lafayette.

Serving as hostesses will be Mesdames Arthur Wagstaff, Frederick Confer, Edward Larmer, DeWitt Krueger, John Enright, Edmund Barnett, Stanley Bush, Leslie Scharmer, Richard Ward, E. M. Jacobsen, Howard Stafford, and Frank Cashin.

Valley Art Center members to serve as hosts will be Messrs. S. G. Culver, Percy Jennings, James Hull, George Hansen, Forrest Englehart, Harold Babbitt, and Frank Brown.

Transportation chairmen Messrs. Richard David and Philip Merrill announced that parking will be available at the school on Springhill Road and shuttle service provided to the Ellis home.

Deputy Sheriff Ball Is Tomorrow at Diablo Club

Deputy Sheriffs' Association members of Contra Costa in the final week of their dance ticket sales campaign for the third annual Sheriff's Ball tomorrow at Danville met June 14, in Walnut Creek Sportsmen's Clubhouse building to discuss final plans.

Committeeman for the dance is William Faulkner, past president of the lawmen's group.

With Henry Gallagher and his orchestra providing music, the ball will be held at Diablo Country Club. Deputies predict the event will surpass the previous two which were successful.

The extensive drive to raise funds for the deputies' widow's and orphan's fund has been in progress for several weeks.

Assisting Faulkner are Edwin Stockman, Richmond; Stanley Cahill, Charter Arendtsen, Martinez; Glenn Marsh, Walnut Creek; George Halter, Joe Walsh, John Snyder, Concord; Steve Rossi, Pittsburg; Eva Chiaradia, Antioch; Arthur Ojaska, Bethel Island; Cliff Avery, Brentwood.

Tickets at one dollar are available from these and all other county deputies. Presentations at the ball will be a deep freezer, clothes dryer and set of tubeless tires. Tickets will also be available at the door at 9 p.m. with dancing 'til 1 a.m.

Youmans Visit Relatives Here

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Youmans of Denver recently visited the home of John Youmans of Pleasant Hill, and planned to attend commencement exercises at the University of California, where their grandson, Ray W. Youmans has obtained a degree in business administration.

Ray Youmans is president of Beta Sigma Phi, and vice president of Alpha Phi Omega fraternities.

WHEEL ALIGNMENT

Having the wheels of your automobile aligned and balanced periodically is an important service function. Correct wheel alignment makes steering easier, reduces wheel vibration and eliminates uneven tire wear.

THE DOES AND DONT'S of parking were stressed recently by Basil Andrews, county traffic engineer. In the top picture a car is parked along with three others on the street. A small child on a trike is already out in the street before a driver can see him. In the lower picture one car is parked in the garage and the car which had been parked in the street is now in the driveway. The child may be seen clearly by a passing motorist. — Sun photos by Harold Haas

Tots tripped in with tipsy trays

THERE ARE LOTS OF NEW DENIM DUDS, ties, tees, and fishing tackle in Orinda this week. The Man Of The House enjoyed HIS DAY last Sunday, surrounded by his offspring who delited Dad with their dime-store surprises and a ceremonial serving of breakfast in bed to start the day.

What the kids didn't buy w/their piggybank pennies, Mother DID, and more likely than not, she charged it. To Father's account! One lady we know found the most elegant of presents for her executive spouse, but minus chargeplate and checkbook, sent it to his office, C.O.D.! There's just no getting around it. Even on Father's Day, it's papa who pays the bills!

COCKTAILS FOR TWO hundred couples with background music provided by the Lee Donnelly Combo took place on the Nels Hamburg's attractive deck and patio in Sleepy Hollow last Sat. when Lombardy members and their guests gathered early and stayed late for this annual Children's Hospital benefit party. Chairman Gloria Rasmussen and her husband Rudy seemed without a care except the success of this summer eve party altho' they still had some last minute packing to do before an early a.m. departure for Buck's Lake Resort, of which they are the new owners.

PATIO PARTYGOERS were pleased to see Miles Sutliffe, who had flown in from Kansas City to join Fran and the family for the wknd. . . . The Sutliffes chatted w/Bev and Marvin Bonds, the Dwight Skaggs, greeted new members Mary Cayting, w/Frank, Caroline Read w/Jimmie. . . . Busily occupied were Joyce and Dan Carter, Arthur Lundblads, William Scatenas, Alan Waddells, Bud and June Kocher.

Coming in from the late afternoon Santa Maria wedding of Janet Morris and Wick Musson were the Bert Koblers, Robert Boyles, Cecil Cantrills. . . . The Bill Jackles arriving w/Sev and Fran Schnugg, joining the Fred Burtons for dinner later at the CAPE COD HOUSE.

Next to Orinda, a nice place to live

Among the missing members, June Merriam and Joan Kendall, both bit by an inconsiderate flu bug! Also Jewel Witter, who with Bill had just ret'd home from a week at Santa Barbara and were too tired to party. . . . The Witters will be moving to Belvedere July 15, where they can keep a closer eye on the progress of their new home being built on the Lagoon, due for completion late Fall.

Thelma and Russell Patterson chatted w/Hop and Faye Hopkins who left early for the Charles Erickson's home in Moraga Del Rey, where outgoing MC board members tied up their term's teamwork w/a buffet supper and swim party.

IN THE DELICIOUS COOL OF THE POOL, the Erickson's girls Gail and Bette performed intricate water ballet tricks for guests, the Joseph Sheaffs, George and Georgana Fink, Jack and Kathy Cunningham, the Con Smiths, while dancing to records in the rumpus room, the Charles Ivys, Angus Mceods, Vern Axelsons, Cole Huntleys, Boone Robinsons.

Another party over in Sleepy Hollow at the Thomas Fergusons who recently returned from three weeks in Mexico and thoughtfully brought back Mexican mementos for each of their guests. . . . Some of the large gathering here to view the color slides of the scenic trip were the Frank Eggertsons, Sam and Mary Scott, Stan Bensons, Jack Harts, Bev and Grant Powell, the Neil Holbrooks.

SUMMER LEAVETAKING, OR GETTING A HEAD START . . . The Jack Behrs, loaded down w/camp equipment, left Saturday for Yellowstone Natl Park. . . . Down South, w/Disneyland on the must-do list, the Carleton Moores and daughter Susan. . . . Also the Bob Williams with their offspring. The Ralph Phelps family opened their place in the mountains at Aptos this week and the Jim Winfrees turned the key in their SEABRIGHT seashore cottage.

Meet Me In Las Vegas, suggested Bruce Winkworth, who was off in that direction on business, so Tish did just that, along with Carl and Connie Sterne, and the foursome enjoyed a fabulous weekend.

CARMEL WAS THE RECENT weekend getaway destination of the Hal O'Flahertys. . . . Also the Jack Addelmans and Jack Coopers, who played golf from sunup till sundown on the Pebble Beach fairways, relaxing in between at the Werner Cooper's house on the 9th hole.

While down Carmel way, too, the Jim Chapples were attracted to the Wharf Theatre's play production of "The Rainmaker" in the new Sunset Room at Highlands Inn.

HOME FROM A HOLIDAY IN NEW YORK, Vin Gilbert who dropped everything for a Manhattan meeting with her husband John who was East on a science conference.

From fog to smog go the Lou Warners of Orchard Road who'll move soon to the southland, LA, which DOES put them a lot closer to Disneyland for the kids, but a greater distance from a host of local friends who are reluctant to see them leave.

Coffee for crowds simple as ABC

Houseguests of the William Thurstons recently were Mrs. T's sister and her family, the Dwight J. Lamms of Boise, Idaho, who enjoyed especially some of our SanFranciscorama, incl. Chinatown, Fisherman's Wharf.

David Denning, aged 7, an Xmas Eve boy, celebed his B'day this midyear month w/a swimparty for sixteen pals at the Oak Springs Pool.

Friends Help Girl Celebrate Birthday

Marjorie Lynn Parsons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Parsons Jr., 50 Meadow View Road, recently celebrated her ninth birthday at her home with friends.

Among the guests were Betsy Jones, Callen Schaefer, Beverly Stillson, Judy Edwards, Pamela Ginffre, Dianne Beconncini, Sharon Lee, Lois Dimpfel, Gail Camparbell, Shawna Miller, Jane Richarz and Nancy Parsons.

Standard asphalt research helps bring taxpayers 3 miles of paving for the cost of 2

You are more comfortable, get there faster, when you drive on safe, modern roads of sturdy and resilient asphalt.

CROWDED HIGHWAYS waste motorists' time—and lives. To build more miles of better roads at lowest cost, highway engineers turned to asphalt paving for 85% of the nation's roads. They find asphalt costs 30 to 50% less than other pavements. It lasts longer, reduces headlight and sunlight glare, provides noiseless, comfortable driving. To help meet the nation's highway needs, Standard* has expanded its asphalt production across the country, now operates nine asphalt refineries.

Our scientists work with highway engineers on improved construction techniques which save millions of your tax dollars each year. This means more and better roads, to serve a nation on the move.

Quick Summer Cash, Small Investment -- Here's How!

Summertime means summer clean-up time, and it also may mean money in your pocket for happy summer outings, thanks to The Sun's Bargain Counter!

You know, those little items about the garage, basement or extra room that are still useable, but seem too small to warrant a classified ad. They often get thrown away.

THE BARGAIN Counter makes this foolish and like throwing real money away, since it is devoted to items valued at $15 or less!

Their advertisement in five newspapers will cost you only $1 if sold in the first week, and only $1.50 for two weeks appearance.

This is a big saving, compared with costs of regular classified ads in any newspaper, and only The Sun has the "Bargain Counter."

A "test" advertisement by you, Mr. Classified Customer, will prove that it's easy to get rid of odds-and-ends, and repeats may supply extra money thorughout the summer!

THE "BARGAIN Counter" allows 10 words for two weeks in all these papers—the Sun Shopping News, Lafayette Sun, Orinda Sun, Walnut Creek Sun and the Pleasant Hill Sun. The charge is $1.50, and there is a 50-cent refund if the item or items are sold in the first week.

Remember, the deadline for placing an ad is Tuesday morning at 10. Phone AT 4-4444, YE 4-5000, or MU 2-4400.

The Sun Shopping News covers all three shopping zones.

Junior Horse Show, Rodeo In Concord Has WC Host

Final preparations are being made for Northern California's largest Junior Horse Show and Rodeo to be held at the Mt. Diablo Trail Ride grounds in Concord on June 30 and July 1.

The Walnut Creek Equestrian 4H Club is host. An entry list of more than 250 competitors is expected, bringing with them more than 300 horses to compete in the thirty events scheduled for the show.

Starting at 9:30 a.m. each day, a full schedule of events will be held in the two arenas and the hunter course.

HIGHLIGHTING the two day show will be the spectacular riding of Virgil Allen of the famous Colorado Riders of Denver.

Allen, along with his partner, Howard Harrow, are widely known throughout the midwest for their trick riding at rodeos and horse shows.

Their climaxing stunt is to ride Roman style, one man standing on the backs of two horses, over the barriers and jumps of the difficult hunter course at the Trail Ride grounds.

Allen is now training his horse to jump through a fire hoop and hopes to have the act worked out in time for the show.

Harrow broke his leg last week while practicing for the show and will be watching from the grandstand as Claude Odom of Fort Worth, Texas, assists Allen in the show ring.

Another feature of the show will be the drawing of the gate prize, a 800-lb. prime steer, donated by ten Contra Costa County stockmen, which will take place Sunday afternoon.

THE STEER IS to be purchased from the top stock grown and shown by a 4H member at the County Fair at Antioch.

Walnut Creek Meat Company will do the slaughtering and Williamson's Food Lockers will cut and wrap it for freezing at no charge.

Judges for the show are as follows: Western, George Millas, Salinas; Hunt Seat, Hans Mueller, Los Gatos; Saddle Seat, Marlene Goodhue, San Mateo; Rodeo, Bob Baker, Clayton.

Arena Director, Gene Lockhart; Ring Steward, Irving Kraemer; Arena Steward, Joe Clark; Announcers, George Cardinet and John Owens; Entry Clerk, Eileen Lockhart; Photographers, Frank Olsen and Jim Cryderman.

Applicants must be residents of the county for one year. Contact Contra Costa County Civil Service Commission, Hall of Records, Martinez.

CCC Bar Endorses Municipal Courts In Local Areas

The Central Contra Costa Bar Association unanimously voted to endorse the establishment of a Municipal Court in either Walnut Creek or Concord Judicial Districts, or both, at a meeting June 7 at Monument Bowl, Pleasant Hill.

A resolution to this effect was passed and members agreed to take all practical steps and do all in their power individually and collectively, to effect the establishment of the court or courts, said Betsy Fitzgerald Rahn, president.

According to Louis J. McKannay, secretary, the memberships considered the matter to be of vital interest to all residents of Central Contra Costa County.

Victor Borge at SF Opera House

Victor Borge, the comedian and famous virtuose of the piano will bring his record-breaking one-man Broadway show, "Comedy in Music" to San Francisco for four nights, June 30—July 3 at the Opera House.

The not-so-melancholy Dane recently completed an unbelievable 107 weeks in New York, chalking up 849 performances. This is the longest run for a one-man-show in the history of the American stage.

Following his Broadway triumph, Borge began his cross-country tour that brings him here. On this current tour he has had more people attend his performance than such hits as "South Pacific."

In Troy, Ohio, which has a population of 10,600, Borge drew an audience of 6,000 — more than half the town's population!

"Comedy in Music" will offer Victor Borge for a full two and one-half hours entertainment. Part of the show consists of an audience participation, at which time Borge asks for requests. The audience asks for everything from Bop to Bach and Chopsticks to Chopin.

Student Prince Soon in Oakland

"The Student Prince," to be staged July 6, 7, 13 and 14, by the Oakland Light Opera Association has been selected to open the Sixth Annual Woodminster Light Opera Series John M. Falls, producer-director.

This musical, packed with romantic action, costumes and Viennese dances, reflects the carefree student life of Old Heidelberg in mythical Karlsberg. Tenor Gregory Millar as the Prince, and Kathie, beautiful blonde Marilyn Landers, two years starring in the role of Laurey with the New York and National Companies of "Oklahoma," will furnish the love interest.

Miss Universe To Model Swim Wear at Capwells

Hillevi Rombin of Sweden, the reigning Miss Universe of 1965, will make a personal appearance at Capwell's Walnut Creek at 7 p.m. next Friday.

The blonde - blue - eyed beauty (36-23-36) will model swimsuits during the Catalina Swimsuit Fashion Shows and will give autographed photographs to those wishing them. There is no charge for the show.

Hillevi speaks five languages fluently—Swedish, English, Spanish, German and French, so there should be no longuage difficulties for those who might wish to speak to her.

Miss Rombin is also an actress, having won a contract with Universal-International Studios. She made her debut with a small role in "The Benny Goodman Story."

Christian Science

The everpresent power of Christian healing will be brought out at services this Sunday at Church of Christ, Scientist, 22 Orinda Highway, Orinda, and 1347 Locust Street, Walnut Creek.

Scriptural selections in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Christian Science" will include Christ Jesus' instruction to his disciples (Luke 10:9): "And heal the sick that are therein, and say unto them, The kingdom of God is come nigh unto you."

Among the passages to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, the Discoverer and Founder of Christian Science, is the following (98:15): "Beyond the frail premises of human beliefs, above the loosening grasp of creeds, the demonstration of Christian Mind-healing stands a revealed and practical Science.

"It is imperious throughout all ages as Christ's reveleation of Truth, of Life, and of Love, which remains inviolate for every man to understand and to practice."

BRAKE FLUID

Here's a good habit to get into: when you have your car lubricated each 1,000 miles, have the service man check the brake fluid level. It only takes a minute and it's one of the most important service points to have checked regularly.
